A SHREWD TRICK .- Davy Crockett's stories were chiefly made up from incidents that occurred in his early life in Botetourt county. He was born and reared in a German settlement upon Purgatory mountain. Some of our elder readers may remember his famous anecdote about Abram Fulwiler and Peter Snyder, which, being rather blasphemous, we shall not repeat. We will, how-ever, teil a good story about that famous pair which has not yet seen the light. Peter had drunk himself out of mill, house and home-there were no homestead laws in Virginia at that time. It was consequently often hard for Soyder to "make a raise" to get a drink, and many and ingenious were the expedients to which he resorted for the purpose of filling the inner man with whisky. On one occasion he perpetrated the following ruse :

On a hot day in August Peter and his "drouthy crony," Abram Fulwiler, were lying down in the shade of a locust on the banks of Purgatory creek. Said Peter: 'Abram, is you dry?' 'Yes, Peter, d-d dry.' 'Well, Abram, I'll get some whisky from Cartmili's grocery." "De d-l you will!-where's your money?" "You let me alone-l'll manage

So he went off, got two bottles, and filled one of them with water. Then he returned, found Abram waiting, and showing the latter the empty bottle, said he "knew how to fill it." He put the bottle of water in one pocket and the empty one in the other. The twain then started for the grocery. Arrived there, l'eter placed the empty bottle on the counter, where it was soon filled with the ardent, which the old toper stowed in one of his pockets and was retiring, when the store keeper bawled out, "Stop there, Peter; pay me for your whisky." "Isn't my credit good for a quart?" indignantly replied the latter. "No," answered the former; "leave, the money or the liquor." "Well," rejoined Peter, take your d-d whisky"-and placing the bottle of water on the counter, he strutted out in fury, with the bottle of whiskey in his

About half an hour afterwards the storekeeper smelt at the bottle, found it filled with water, and rushed out after Snyder; but he found him and Fulwiler both gloriously drunk on the banks of Purgatory creek .- Norfolk Journal.

Boy Again .- A company of gentlemen were not long since, whiling an evening away by singing songs and relating anecdotes, when one asked for the song of "Would I were a boy again;" at which "Old Plute" (John K. Love joy), who was present, broke out as follows: "A boy again! Who would be a boy again if he could; to have the measles, mumps, and itch; to get licked by bigger boys, and scolded by elder brothers; to stub your toes; to have the belly-ache from swallowing cherry stones; to have chapped hands and frezen toes; to slip on the ice; to do chores; to get your ears boxed; to get spanked with a slipper; to get whaled by a thick headed schoolmaster; to be made to stand up as the 'dunce' for the amusement of the school; to have visitors come to school and tell you how miserably weak and stupid you were when you were born, and to ask you what would have become of you at that interesting time in your life if your parents had not been so patient with, and kind to you, (of course, it was all one's fault that he was born, and his parents were in no way concerned or interesied in the matter); to cat at the second table when company comes; to set out cabbageplants because you are little, and consequently it won't make your back ache much; to be made to go to school when you don't want to go; get spelled down in school; to lose your marbles; to have your sled broken; to get hit in the eye with frezen apples and soggy snowballs; to cut your finger; to lose your knife; to have a hole in the rear of your only pair of pants when your pretty cousin from the city comes to see you; to be called a coward it you won't fight at school; to be whaled at home if you do fight at school; to be made to go to bed when you know you ain't a bit sleepy; to have no fire-crackers on the Fourth of July, no skates on Christmas; to want a piece of bread and-butter with honey and get your ears pulled; to be kept from the circus when it comes to town, and when all the other boys go; to get pounded for stealing roasting ears; to get run by bull dogs for trying to nip watermelons; to have the canker rash, catechism, and stonebruises; to be called up to kiss all the old women that visit your mother; to be scol-ded because you like Maggie Love better than your own dear sister; to be told of what scorehing times little boys will have who tell lies and are not like George Washington; and-why, who'd be a boy again?

THE RED SEA. -The Red Sea is said to be the hottest place in the world. The atmosphere for about fifty miles on that sea is steamy and sticky. Every thing in the shape of iron or steel about a ship takes on a coat of rust. During the summer months no one travels on the Red Sea unless compelled by business or military orders to do so. In the winter and spring the passage is delightful. Yet naviga tion in that body of water is always attended with many dangers. The Red Sea is long and narrow, with sunken rocks and projecting reets; and counter winds prevail, which produce dangerous currents. There are three light-houses in the sea, which must be kept by salamander like men, since the thermometer runs up to one hundred and twenty degrees in July and approaches ninety in early spring.

BABIES. - The delight of days, the terment of the nights; elegant in full dress, but horrible in dishabile; beautiful on the smile, but maddening on the yell; exquisitely in place in the nursery, but awfully out of place in the parlor or railway carriage; the well-springs of delight, and the recipients of unlimited spankings; the glory of 'pa,' the happiness of 'ma.'

Bilious Fever,
Dumb

Dumb Ague. and the long train of disorders following these when neglected.

SWEET QUININE

s made solely from Peruvian Park (so is Bitter Quinine,) therefore it is of Vegetable origin, and not a Minera! Poison, but on the contrary is proved to be one of the elements found in the blood of all healthy persons.

SWEET QUININE

sets as an antidote to, as well as a cure for, ma-larial or miasmatic poison, the absorption of which by the lungs causes Intermittent Fevers, etc. The only advantage claimed for over the use of old Bitter Quinine is the entire absence of that intense, persistent bitterness, which in the latter is an insurmountable obstacle to its use with most persons, and always with children.

is in two forms-in Powder, for the use of Physicians and Druggists, and Fluid, for use in the family and for the general public. STEARNS, FARR & CO.,

Young persons are too apt to commit ex-cesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleas-ure of healthy oilspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The System becomes deranged, the Physical and Ments! Functions Weakened, Loss of Progrestive Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, In-5 gestion, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Consumption, Decay and Death.

DR. JOHNSON, Member of the Royal College of Surgeons. London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospit-als of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known, many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blashing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind: were cured immediately.
